

WORKDAY'S LEADING EXPERT

PROJECT PARTNER

Your Guide to Workday Implementation Success

WHAT IS PROJECT PARTNER?

Implementing Workday is like preparing for a major new arrival—while you may have prior experience, the demands are faster-paced and require strong teamwork.

Often described as “drinking from a fire hose,” your entire organization must adapt to a new system all at once, which brings unexpected challenges.

Workday's unique processes can be difficult to navigate without expert guidance. Project Partner ensures you're prepared, helping you make the most of every critical interaction and stay aligned with your project's vision.

YOUR TRUSTED WORKDAY ALLY

We offer comprehensive support throughout your entire Workday implementation, from initial planning to post-deployment.

Our experienced advisors ensure your team navigates the complexities of Workday with confidence, aligning project goals and delivering smooth execution at every stage.

ABOUT OKORIO

Okorio is a Workday consultancy specializing in HCM, Financials, and Adaptive Planning. Built on Active Cyber's expertise since 2016, Okorio delivers strategic, high-impact Workday solutions—from seamless implementations to ongoing optimization and support.

We help businesses streamline HR, enhance financial management, and drive smarter planning, ensuring they maximize their Workday investment for long-term success.

KEY SERVICES INCLUDE:

Pre-Implementation Consulting

Aligning project goals from the kickoff to ensure readiness.

Training & Change Management

Equipping your team with essential skills and strategies for seamless transitions.

Risk Mitigation

Through proactive planning, we identify and resolve potential issues before they escalate, safeguarding against costly delays.

Implementation & Design Support

Collaborating to ensure your implementation aligns with business objectives and operates smoothly.

